

CUSTOMER COMPENSATION POLICY FOR 2019-20

Introduction

1.1 Compensation Policy of Bank is designed to cover areas relating to unauthorized debiting of account, unauthorized Electronic banking transactions, Banking payment of interest to customers for delay in collection of cheques / instruments, payment of cheques after acknowledging stop payment instructions, remittances within India, foreign exchange services, lending etc. The policy is based on principles of transparency and fairness in treatment of the customers and regulatory guidelines.

1.2 The objective of the Policy is to establish a system, whereby the customer is compensated for the financial loss due to deficiency in service or an act of omission or commission directly attributable to the Bank.

1.3 The customer, as far as possible, will be compensated without having to ask for it.

1.4 The Policy covers only compensation for financial losses which customer might incur due to deficiency in the services offered by the bank which can be measured directly and as such the commitments under the Policy are without prejudice to any right the bank will have in defending its position before any forum duly constituted to adjudicate banker-customer disputes.

2 Deficiencies requiring compensation and the level of compensation

2.1 Unauthorized / Erroneous Debit

2.1.1(a) If the bank has raised an unauthorized / erroneous direct debit to an account, the entry will be reversed immediately on being informed of the erroneous debit, after verifying the position. In the event the unauthorized / erroneous debit has resulted in a financial loss for the customer by way of reduction in the minimum balance applicable for payment of interest on Savings Fund deposit or payment of additional interest to the bank in a loan account, the bank will compensate the customer for such loss. Further, if the customer has suffered any financial loss incidental to return of a cheque or failure of direct debit instruction due to insufficiency of balance on account of the unauthorized / erroneous debit (other than those on account of third party breaches), the bank will compensate the customer to the extent of such financial losses after taking into consideration of all relevant factors.

2.1.2 Liability of a Customer or Bank in unauthorized electronic Banking Transactions:

(a) Zero Liability of a Customer

A customer's entitlement to zero liability shall arise where the unauthorised transaction occurs in the following events:

- (i) Contributory fraud/ negligence/ deficiency on the part of the bank (irrespective of whether or not the transaction is reported by the customer).
- (ii) Third party breach where the deficiency lies neither with the bank nor with the customer but lies elsewhere in the system, and the customer notifies the bank within three working days of receiving the communication. Here, the communication means information to customer through SMS, mails, passbook and other means.

(b) Limited Liability of a Customer

A customer shall be liable for the loss occurring due to unauthorized transactions in the following cases:

- (i) In cases where the loss is due to negligence by a customer, such as where he has shared the payment credentials (viz. User ID, Passwords, PIN, MPIN, OTP, Card Details, Mobile Device sharing or any other credential that may be defined by the Bank), the customer will bear the entire loss until he reports the unauthorized transaction to the bank. Any loss occurring after the reporting of the unauthorized transaction shall be borne by the bank.
- (ii) In cases where the responsibility for the unauthorized electronic banking transaction lies neither with the bank nor with the customer, but lies elsewhere in the system and the customer notifies such transaction on fourth to seventh day after receiving the communication from the bank (here, the communication to customer means information to customer through SMS, mails, passbook and other means), the per transaction liability of the customer shall be limited to the transaction value or the amount mentioned in Table 1, whichever is lower.

Reversal Time line for Zero Liability / Limited Liability of a Customer:

On being notified by the customer, the Bank shall credit (shadow reversal) the amount involved in the unauthorized electronic transaction to the customer's account within 10 working days from the date of such notification by the customer (without waiting for settlement of insurance claim, if any). The credit shall be value dated to be as the date of unauthorized transaction.

Burden of Proof: The burden of proving the customer liability in case of unauthorized electronic Banking transactions shall lie on the Bank. Such cases of Zero liability / limited liability of customers and compensation amount shall be examined and decided by DBD Division in case of unauthorized electronic transactions and by FRMD in case of fraudulent electronic transactions.

2.1.2 (i) In case verification of the entry reported to be erroneous by the customer does not involve a third party, the bank will endeavor to complete the process of verification within a maximum period of seven working days from the date of reporting of erroneous debit. In case, the verification involves a third party or where verification is to be done at overseas centers, the bank shall complete the verification process within a maximum period of one month from the date of reporting of erroneous transaction by the customer.

2.1.3 (a) Erroneous transactions reported by customers in respect of credit card operations which require specific reference to a merchant establishment will be handled as per rules laid down by card association.

(b) Where it is established that bank had issued and activated a credit card without written consent of the recipient, the bank would not only reverse the charges immediately but also pay a penalty without demur to the recipient amounting to twice the value of charges reversed as per regulatory guidelines in this regard.

(c) The compensation on account of delays in collection of instruments would be as indicated in the bank's collection policy.

2.2 Payment of Cheques after Stop Payment Instructions

In case a cheque has been paid after stop payment instruction is acknowledged by the bank, the bank shall reverse the transaction within two working days after receiving the intimation and give value-dated credit to protect the interest of the customer. Any consequential financial loss to the customer will be compensated as provided under para 2.1.

2.3 ECS direct debits / other debits to accounts

2.3.1 The bank will undertake to carry out direct debit / ECS debit instructions of customers in time. In the event the bank fails to meet such commitments customer will be compensated to the extent of any financial loss customer would incur on account of delay in carrying out the instruction / failure to carry out the instructions.

2.3.2 The bank would debit the customer's account with any applicable service charge as per schedule of charges notified by the bank from time to time and displayed on bank's website www.pnbindia.in, which will be a notice to the public at large. In the event the bank levies any charge in violation of the arrangement, the bank will reverse the charges when pointed out by the customer subject to scrutiny of agreed terms and conditions. Any consequential financial loss to the customer will also be compensated.

2.3.3 Delay in collection of local cheques and other Negotiable Instruments:

All cheques and other negotiable instruments payable locally would be presented through the Clearing System prevailing at the centre. Bank would give credit to the customer account on the day the clearing settlement takes place.

Interest for delayed collection shall be paid at the following rates:

- If the proceeds of cheque under collection were to be credited to Savings Bank or Current account of the customer, interest at the rate of Saving Bank Rate for the period of delay.
- If the proceeds of cheque under collection were to be credited to an overdraft/loan account of the customer, interest will be paid at the rate applicable to the overdraft/loan account.

2.4 Delays in Collection of Outstation Cheques and other Negotiable Instruments in India

As part of the compensation policy of the bank, the bank will pay interest to its customer on the amount of collection instruments in case there is delay in giving credit beyond the time period specified in banks cheque collection policy. Such interest shall be paid without any demand from customers in all type of accounts.

There shall be no distinction between instruments drawn on the bank's own branches or on other banks for the purpose of payment of interest on delayed collection.

Interest for delayed collection shall be paid at the following rates:

(a) If the proceeds of cheque under collection were to be credited to Savings Bank or Current account of the customer,

(i) Savings Bank rate for the period of delay beyond 7/10/14 days as the case may be in collection of outstation cheques.

(ii) Where the delay is beyond 14 days but up to 90 days, interest will be paid at the rate applicable to term deposit for the corresponding period or Saving Bank rate, whichever is higher.

(iii) In case of extraordinary delay, i.e. delays exceeding 90 days interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the rate applicable to term deposit for the corresponding period.

(a) If the proceeds of cheque under collection were to be credited to an overdraft / loan account of the customer,

Interest will be paid at the rate applicable to the loan account. For extraordinary delays, i.e. delays exceeding 90 days interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the rate applicable to the loan account.

It may be noted that interest payment as given above would be applicable only for instruments sent for collection within India and when the amount calculated is Rs.10/- and above. Interest amount will be rounded off to the nearest rupee.

In case of delay, Bank shall pay the beneficiary interest @ 2% over the savings bank interest rate.

2.9 Cheques / Instruments lost in transit / in clearing process/ at paying bank's branch:

In the event a cheque or an instrument accepted for collection is lost in transit or in the clearing process or at the paying bank's branch, the bank shall immediately on coming to know of the loss, bring the same to the notice of the accountholder so that the accountholder can inform the drawer to record stop payment and also take care that cheques, if any, issued by him / her are not dishonored due to non – credit of the amount of the lost cheques / instruments. The bank would provide all assistance to the customer to obtain a duplicate instrument from the drawer of the cheque.

The bank will compensate the accountholder in respect of instruments lost in transit in the following way:

(a) In case intimation regarding loss of instrument is conveyed to the customer beyond the time limit stipulated for collection (7/10/14 days as the case may be) interest will be paid for the period exceeding the stipulated collection period at the rates specified under clause 2.4.

(b) In addition, bank will pay interest on the amount of the cheque for a further period of 15 days at Savings Bank rate to provide for likely further delay in obtaining duplicate cheque/instrument and collection thereof.

(c) The bank would also compensate the customer for any reasonable charges he/she incurs in getting duplicate cheque/instrument upon production of receipt, in the event the instrument is to be obtained from a bank/ institution who would charge a fee for issue of duplicate instrument.

2.10 Delay in Issue of duplicate draft

Duplicate draft will be issued within a fortnight from the receipt of such request from the purchaser along with submission of documents as prescribed by the bank. For delay beyond the above stipulated period, interest at the rate applicable for fixed deposit of corresponding period will be paid as compensation to the customer for such delay. The period of fortnight prescribed would be applicable only in cases where the request for duplicate demand draft is made by the purchaser or the beneficiary and would not be applicable in the case of third party endorsements.

2.11 ATM Failure to dispense cash/short cash

It is mandatory for bank to reimburse the customer, the amount wrongfully debited on account of failed ATM transactions within a maximum period of 7 (seven) working days from the receipt of the customer complaint. For any failure to re-credit the customer's account within 7 (seven) working days from the date of receipt of the complaint, bank shall pay compensation of Rs.100/- per day to the aggrieved customer. This compensation shall be credited to the customer's account automatically without any claim from the customer, on the same day when bank affords the credit for the failed ATM transactions.

Customer is entitled to receive such compensation only if claim is lodged with the issuer bank within 30 days of the date of transaction.

Further, this is applicable for domestic ATM transactions only. Details of charge back in case of ATM transaction by a customer of the bank when he uses other bank ATM may be included.

All disputes regarding ATM failed transactions shall be settled by the issuing and the acquiring bank through the ATM System Provider only. No bilateral settlement arrangement outside the dispute resolution mechanism available with the System Provider is permissible. This measure is intended to bring down the instances of disputes in payment of compensation between the issuing and acquiring banks.

2.12 Delay in disbursement of revised pension and arrears

All the pensioners are compensated for the delayed period, if delay is on the part of the Bank, beyond the due date at a fixed interest rate of 8%.. Compensation shall be credited automatically without any claim from the pensioner on the same day when the bank affords the credit.

3. Violation of the Code by bank's agent

In the event of receipt of any complaint from the customer that Bank's representative / courier or Direct Selling Agent (DSA) has engaged in any improper conduct or acted in violation of the Code of Bank's Commitment to Customers which the bank has adopted voluntarily, the bank is committed to investigate the matter and endeavor to communicate the findings to the customer within 7 working days from the date of receipt of complaint and wherever justified, compensate the customer for financial losses, if any, as contemplated under this policy.

4. Transaction of “at par instruments” of Co-operative Banks

Bank will not honor Cheques drawn on current accounts maintained by co-operative banks with it unless arrangements are made for funding cheques issued. Issuing bank shall be responsible to compensate the cheque holder for non-payment / delayed payment of cheques in the absence of adequate funding arrangement.

The bank has adopted the principles of lender’s liability. In terms of the guidelines for lenders liability, and the Code of Bank’s Commitment to Customers adopted by the bank, the bank would return to the borrowers all the securities/documents/title deeds to mortgaged property within 15 days of repayment of all dues agreed to or contracted. The bank will compensate the borrower for monetary loss suffered, if any due to delay in return of the same. In the event of loss of title deeds to mortgaged property at the hands of the banks the compensation will cover out of pocket expenses for obtaining duplicate documents plus a lumpsum amount as decided by the bank.

6. Customers’ Responsibility

Bank will not be responsible for the loss to the customers due to customer’s carelessness in keeping the Cheque book, passbook, cards, PIN or other security information and not following Do’s and Don’ts issued by Bank, until the Bank has been notified by the customer.

Bank will not be responsible for the loss to the customer, if the customer acts fraudulently and/or acts without reasonable care which has resulted into loss to him/her. Bank will also not be responsible for the losses arising out of misuse of lost PIN, compromise of passwords/secured or confidential information, until the time the Bank has been notified and has taken steps to prevent misuse.

6.1 RBI directed that no changes/corrections should be carried out on the cheques. For any changes in the payee’s name, courtesy amount (amount in figures) or legal amount (amount in words) etc. excepting change in the date for validation period, fresh cheque forms should be used by customers. This will help the bank to identify and control fraudulent alterations.

6.2 Reduction of validity of cheque /draft /pay order/Banker’s cheque from 6 months to 3 months w.e.f. 01.04.2012.

6.3 Dishonor/Return of cheques: Bank needs to mention the ‘Date of Return’ & sign/ initial the Cheque Return Memo and the Objection Slip is to be signed/initialed giving therein a definite and valid reason for refusing payment, as prescribed in Rule 6 of the Uniform Regulations and Rules for Bankers' Clearing Houses (URRBCH). This will enable the holder of the instrument to have legal recourse against the drawer of the cheque.

7. Disclaimer Clause

Notwithstanding anything contained hereinabove, the Bank shall not pay any compensation in the following cases:-

i) Any deficiency in regard to loans and advances activities of the Bank.

ii) Dishonor of at par payment agreement with other banks, due to non-funding and security compliance.

iii) Delays on account of non-functioning of business due to factors beyond the control of the bank the period covered by such events shall be omitted for calculation of delay etc.

iv) Where the issues are sub-judice and pending before Courts, Ombudsman, Arbitrator, Government and matter put on hold due to stay.
